Psalm 4:1, “Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.”

There are times when we need to know the Lord has heard our cry, our petition, our distress! Today is one of those days for so many. David knew the Lord had built him up when he was in distress so many times before. This cry in Psalm 4:1 comes from deep down within David as he witnessed all the evilness, all the pain, all the hurt, that was going on around him. He cried out unto the Lord as we all must do in like circumstances. “Have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer” is the cry we make when we know things are beyond our control. Life is so short. Don’t spend it in anger or pity or seeking revenge. We all need the peace that only God can give. The Lord Himself came down to this earth by His tender mercy “To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace” (Luke 1:79). Please join us today in praying and crying unto the Lord for His mercy, that He would shed His grace upon us all, and that He will hear our prayers. And, He does and He will. Amen! Think About IT!
