

Christ Mass 35 Years Behind Me

Nothing like some old fashioned Christ Mass fellowship.

[Deu 4:1-2 KJV] 1 Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do [them], that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you. 2 Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish [ought] from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

[Rev 22:18-19 KJV] 18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: 19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and [from] the things which are written in this book.

It is not just the book of Revelation under consideration, but the entirety of God's word which we are to respect by not adding to or removing anything God has spoken to us.

The text in Deu 4:1-2 and Rev 22:18-19 are issuing the same warning to us.

Now consider that when you tie the name of the Son of God to pagan worship of the sun god, and practice it as a Christian, you are adding something to the word that God did not. However we are warned of another Jesus (which is not another) 2 Cor 11:4 I suspect it is another Jesus, another mother child tandem, Semiramis and Tammuz, not Mary and baby Jesus that are being venerated on the birth day of the sun god. Eze 8:13-14, Jer 7:18, Jer 44:17-19 and Jer 44:25

The celebration of Jesus birth is never commanded, was an invention of the Catholic Church created in order to attract pagans to their false order (Gal 4:8-11) and was actually illegal in the early days of the United States because those who escaped persecution in Europe were wise enough to know about the Christ Mass deception. Any student of history can ascertain the facts easily.

The world conveniently suggests that the day of His birth is the same as the pagan sun gods. December 25th. The bible tells us that Mary gave birth during the days of taxation.

Luke 2:1-7, Let me ask you a few simple questions. Would any reasonable tax authority wait until winter to collect their tax, or would they do it on the heels of the fall harvest when people actually had money in their pockets? Also, would shepherds have their flocks in the fields at night during the cold and wet rainy season? Luke 2:8 Of course not.

The true date of Jesus birth can be easily ascertained. Everyone knows Jesus was on earth for thirty three and one half years before He was crucified, right? Everyone also knows Jesus was crucified on Passover, which is on the fourteenth day of the first month on the Jewish feast calendar. Simply consider that six month period of his life and back up six months from Passover and that brings you to the fifteenth day of Tishri, being the feast of Tabernacles. This is normally in our September / October time frame. Either forward or backward six months brings you to the same date on the Jewish feast calendar. Remember the day is different every year since it is based on a moon calendar. Jesus being born on the feast of Tabernacles makes perfect sense, in that He is God who came down to tabernacle with men.

A Christ Mass tree has absolutely nothing to do with Jesus and His birth. In fact, EVERY mention of the evergreen tree in scripture is tied to worship of Baal, the groves and ALWAYS carries warnings against their use. Since they are used in false worship, they are to be torn down and destroyed when setup to do obeisance to the sun gods, not invited into your home to decorate, adorned, and admired as you supposedly worship baby Jesus. Deu 12:2, 1 Ki 14:23, 2 Ki 16:4, 2 Ki 17:10, 2 Ch 28:4, Isa 57:5, Jer 2:20, Jer 3:6, Jer 3:13, and Eze 6:13,

Santa Clause is Satan masquerading as God and mocks His omnipotence, Isa 14:12-14 and leads you to lie to your children about his existence and abilities. You are complicit in helping to mock God. You are guilty of offending your children. Be warned. Mat 18:1-6. Santa is said to be Omniscient since he knows if you've been sleeping, awake, bad or good, as the supposed innocent song goes. But only Jesus possesses all power both in heaven and earth. Mat 28:18. Santa is a cunningly devised fable. Tit 1:14, 2 Tim 4:4, 1 Tim 4:7, 1 Tim 1:4 and 2 Pet 1:16. He transforms himself into an angel of light 2 Cor 11:14, that he may appear pleasing and acceptable to you. The name itself is thinly veiled. Satan or Santa. He even attempts to mock the outward appearance of God. Rev 1:14, Isa 63:1-2. He pretends to be a carpenter, Mark 6:3 with work shop in the north. Isa 14:13. His little helpers are none others than the fallen angels. Rev 12:6. He is said to magically fly through the sky, Deu 33:26 and is further identified as the prince of the power of the air. Eph 2:2. His jolly ho, ho, ho mocks what God says in Zec 2:6.

The Only place in the word of God where gift exchange is even celebrated is when the people thought the two truth telling prophets of God were dead. Let that sink in. Rev 11:7-

The Catholic Mass. The Name says it all , Christ Mass or Christmas. The Mass is the celebration of the death of Christ, not his birth. Look it up for your selves. The Catholic Church believes that the Mass is exactly the same sacrifice that Jesus Christ offered on the Cross at Calvary. Christians are commanded to commemorate the death of Christ only in communion service. Of course the enemy would have you celebrate the death of Christ on his special day, now wouldn't he? Mat 2:16

John 14:17 tells us that the world CAN NOT receive the Spirit of truth. However it is a fact that the world at large does receive the spirit of Christmas. Atheists, Hindus, Muslim, Buddhists, professing Christians and others receive the spirit of Christmas, which proves it is not the spirit of truth. And remember there is only one way to worship God, and that is in Spirit and in truth. Joh 4:24

Romans 14:5-6 is often cited as proof that we have Christian liberty to observe the pagan feasts. Nothing could be further from the truth. The word of God never gives license to enter into false worship or idolatry. The days under consideration in Romans fourteen were the Jewish observations that were normally rehearsed by the Jews on an annual basis. The question was whether or not Jewish converts to Christianity should observe them or not. Nothing more. It is not permission to enter into idol worship. Lev 19:4, Acts 15:20, 1 Thes 1:9

The Bible is replete with warnings against idolatry. Any serious bible reader knows this.

[2Co 6:17 KJV] 17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean [thing]; and I will receive you,

[Rev 18:4 KJV] 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

The Apostle Paul labored with those who were caught up in idolatry and wanted them to come out of it. He did not condemn them to hell, but desired they draw closer to God by shedding the false and beggarly elements of the world.

Ask yourself, do you believe Jesus or Santa? You are commanded to love Jesus.

[1Jo 3:23 KJV] 23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

[Exo 34:14 KJV] 14 For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name [is] Jealous, [is] a jealous God:

[Deu 4:24 KJV] 24 For the LORD thy God [is] a consuming fire, [even] a jealous God.
